OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 2 August 1961

1. (Unclassified - JSW) Milton Eisenberg in Senator Kenneth B. Keating's office (R., N. Y.) telephoned saying that NBCTV plans to put on a program based on the book Count 5 and Die. He inquired whether we would be willing to speak with the script writer who apparently wishes some indication as to whether the book is authentic. This was discussed with Colonel Grogan who stated the same query had been made directly to him. He advised he had informed them that we could not do this but had referred them to other sources such as Archives, State and [] the veterans of the OSS. I advised Eisenberg generally in accord with this and while he insisted somewhat I stated the Director's policy was quite firm on this.
